Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows: methods for:

1. treating or preventing connective tissue degeneration in the dermis and/or cartilage;
2. for activating the synthesis of heat shock proteins;
3. for improving cicatrisation process, for restructuring the skin and/or mucous membranes, for treating and/or preventing the sagging of the skin and/or mucous membranes; and
4. for improving resistance of the connective tissues under a physical stress.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

1. claims 1, 3, 11-15, 17-19, 23-24;
2. claims 2, 16, 25;
3. claims 4, 6-10;
4. claims 5, 20-22.

The following claims are generic: none.

As set forth in Rule 13.1 of the Patent Cooperation Treaty (PCT), the international application shall relate to one invention only or to a group of inventions. Moreover, as stated in PCT Rule 13.2, the requirement of unity of invention referred to in PCT Rule 13.2 shall be fulfilled where a group of inventions is claimed in one and the same international application only when there is a technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features. The expression special technical features shall mean those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art, so linked, as to form a single general inventive concept.

The inventions listed as Groups 1-8 do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because even though the inventions of these groups require the technical feature of composition comprising lupeol-rich extract, this technical feature is not a special technical feature as it does not make a contribution over the prior art in view of Gogly et al. ("Effects of vegetable extract from lupinus albus (Lu105) on the degradation by human leucocyte elastase and bacterial collagenase of gingival collagen and elastic fibers", Journal of Investigative dermatology, vol. 119, no.1, July 2002 (2002-07), page 232, XP002286368). The reference discloses the use of Lu105 extract for inhibiting gingival matrix molecules degradation by inflammatory and bacterial enzymes (see abstract).

Multiple inventors

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
